All personal information collected from AATCC members is only accessible to other individual and corporate AATCC members and staff. This is a benefit offered to AATCC members that allows them to contact other members for professional engagement. AATCC members can revoke permissions to make this information available to other members at any time. You may request the removal of your personal data, or to be removed from AATCC mailing lists, at any time. For more information about AATCC'S privacy policy, visit www.aatcc.org.

If you reside in the European Union please provide affirmative consent:

I give AATCC permission to process and store this personal data as stated in the privacy policy.
